The illustration features a central graphic with a woman sitting on a red chair using a laptop and a man sitting on the floor reading a book. Between them is a large open book and a tablet displaying a search interface. Surrounding this central scene are several circular icons connected by dotted lines: a magnifying glass, a classical building, a computer monitor, a group of people, a padlock, a lightbulb, and an open book. In the top left corner of the graphic is a red hexagonal logo with the University of Pavia emblem and the text 'Biblionauti TRAINING'.
